

Antique Flea Market Booth Registration Form

Eighth Annual Town-wide Tag Sale Antique Flea @ 600 East Main St. October 8-10, 2010

Thank you for making the decision to take part in the Antique Flea Market, the upscale event of the Tag Sale weekend. The Tag Sale has become a regional event. It is enhanced by the quality and professionalism of the Antique Flea Market participants. We hope your experience will be one of the best ever and look forward to having you back year after year. Couple of quick notes:

- The Flea Market is a juried event; we will review your information and make a decision quickly on your inclusion. Be prepared to provide photos or brochures of your items upon request during the jury deliberations.
- The Flea Market is a three-day event; two-day rentals are handled through the main Tag Sale registration process.
- Booth space assigned by Everyday Elegance is to maximize sales for all participants.
- You may request a specific booth space or general location in comments section below. Booth spaces are approx. 12x12.
- We will confirm your reservation via phone or email once received, juried and processed. You'll be contacted with your specific location and booth number the week of October 4th
- We require tents and weights. We do not provide tents, weights, electricity, tables or other items.
- Set up is Thursday night. Parking is offsite, directions provide during setup. Restocking must be complete nlt 20 minutes before lot opening each day. Hours are Friday/Sunday 10-5; Saturday 8-5. No tear down prior to 5 pm Sunday without permission.
- Security patrols provided Friday and Saturday nights.
- Payment must accompany registration and be received before 15 September to avoid late registration fee.
